

KP Horary as opposed to Natal :-

Prasana-Marga(include Ashta-Mangala), Prasna-Tantra(Greek-Tajaka), & Hora-sara (with 108 numbers) are the 3 major traditional systems before KP(249 numbers, for 249 Subs) came in to vogue... In KPAstro-method, what are the main differences between tools used for analyzing NATAL(Radical)-Chart as opposed to HORARY Chart.?? :- Horary astrology is the art of astrological divination..

1) In both Horary&Natal, Starting-Point of a house is called the cusp of that house. For erecting the chart,& for fixing the most crucial 12Cuspal-Points, though in both cases Placidus-house-division method and KP Ayanamsa are used, in Horary-chart for 1stCuspal-point(Lagna-point) is based on the NUMBER(between 1 to 249) given by the querent as opposed to Natal Chart where DoB/ToB/PoB(both Lat/Long) are used..The Lagna-Point is NIRAYANA by itself in Horary, and therefore Ayanamsa shouldn't be adjusted for the 1stCuspal-point, but in Radical(Natal)-Chart, ALL 12 cuspal-points including Lagna-Point, are Sayana,& hence for Lagna-point too,Ayanamsa shd be adjusted...

2) For erecting Natal Chart, Universal Table of Houses is used, but for Horary chart, Horary table of houses is used(with Latitude) alone , preferably that of Subramaniam.....

3) Planets in Retrogression: a) If Dasa-Bhukti Lords r in retro in Radical Chart their good effects are slightly reduced and bad effects are slightly magnified..Nothing more!! But in Horary, if SUCH Retro planet happens to be either the Relevant CSBL Planet or even Dasa-Bhukti Lords their effects (good or bad,) are delayed till such time they regain forward motion and also come back to the same point from where they went in Retro.. b) If Such Retro-Planet in Horary is either STL/SBL of the relevant CSBL, then the matter, be it good or bad, wd ultimately FAIL and FALL THROUGH... c) If the 11thCSBL or STL/SBL of 11thCSBL is RETRO, the relevant good effect wd NOT materialize atall.. d) If STL or SBL of even a R.P. is retro, such R.P. too is to be ignored, for selecting appropriate significators, & for eliminating 'temptors' ..

4) Natal-Chart is for analyzing all matters / events, and for entire life; but Horary-Chart is only for & exclusively for that particular query, after which the Horary Chart is useless.. Therefore Natal Chart is a JUNGLE thru' which it is tougher to wade thru' to find the right path, and though natal-chart is tougher to analyze, that chart stands good for entire life, & for all life-events & for all times..

5) In KP method for analyzing Natal(Radical)-chart, ToB/PoB should be v precise, if possible to the Second, and a small error of even half-a minute, in ToB, could be a very big error, changing a couple of CSBLs, besides most CSSBLs.; hence in case of doubt in accuracy of ToB/PoB, it is always advisable to go for KP-Horary.. Horary astrology (Prashna Jyotish in Sanskrit) is a branch of astrology which is useful when birth details are not available with the required accuracy. Some KP-astrologers/KP-Scholars, claim that horary-method gives more accurate results than natal(birth-chart) astrology.!

6) There are few differences in purpose of usage of Ruling planets, between Horary & Natal.
--Compiled By SVT.....

KP Astro-Analysis based on Horary... :-

Fundamentals: Should always have well structured, well articulated, specific (& NOT vague), absolutely clear & unambiguous question from the querent in order to know exactly which house(s) to judge, followed by a number between 1 to 249. Next 'WHO' is the person making the query? There can be 3 sources, ie., a) Is the question pertaining to himself or b) pertaining to his relative/ friend/ enemy/ neighbor etc. & if so which relative, or c) is it general question of some fancy or interest? This will enable the astrologer to find the 'relevant Lagna' & subsequent houses to be judged from Horary-Chart. In Horary, the first house represents the person who is asking the question... If the querent asks 'Will I win the Litigation', then consider first house itself as his Lagna & 6th / 3rd & 11th there from to answer the query. For every query find out the most important (main) House, its CSBL & STL/SBL of that CSBL. This main house CSBL should be related to the other house pertaining to the question. Suppose the query is 'Will I get the job' then the main house is 6th & other houses are 11, 10 & 2, all from Lagna of Horary chart. If the query is related to his son, then this 6th from 5th & then 11, 10 & 2, all counted from 5th from Horary Lagna.

1. CASTING A HORARY CHART : For casting a Horary Chart take the commencing position of the Sub of the Horary number as the NIRAYANA ASCENDANT. This Cuspal position of the Ascendant remains the same, irrespective of the year, date, time or the locality where the CHART is cast. Hence Ayanamsa value should NOT be adjusted, for Lagna-Cupal-point.

2. For ascertaining the Cusps of other 10 houses, take only the LATITUDE where the Astrologer judges the chart irrespective of the place from which the Query has been raised, either by phone, letter, E-mail, telegram etc., and the Chart is to be prepared as per THE PLACIDUS SYSTEM OF HOUSE DIVISION as advised by our GURUJI LATE SRI K.S.KRISHNAMURTI with the help of UNIVERSAL TABLE OF HOUSES OR K.P.TABLE OF HOUSES or Horary Table of houses by Subramaniam, AND MAHABALA EPHEMERIS and other Tables required for erecting the Chart correctly as advised by him. This is for those who prepare the Chart manually. Those who have computers can prepare the Chart with the help of Software prepared by Sri A.R.Raichur of Bombay or Sri Rangarajan of Man Machine Systems, Chennai..- Unfortunately JH software re Horary is NOT found to be accurate.. The Ayanamsa value in JH software is higher by 2.0 to 7.0 secs., & in Subramaniam's books, Ayanamsa is higher by a marginal 0.32sec, BUT in D.D software it is less by 5.91sec & so JH is to be reduced by 2.0 to 7.0sec., Subramaniam values possibly by 0.32sec & D.D value increased by about 6 secs, respectively....

3. If the HORARY CHART is likely to be judged immediately after casting, then the position of Planets is to be worked out for the time when the Chart is taken for casting; In all other cases the position of Planets should be worked out only for the time when the Astrologer commences analyzing the chart.. One point is to be clear in respect of those Astrologers who have KP Charts computer package. In their cases they should remember that unless they are in a position to analyze the Chart immediately after getting a print-out of the Chart with all details of the Significators, Aspects, Dasas etc., they should not cast the Chart and keep it and attend to some other job thinking that the Chart has been prepared for the correct time as desired by them and therefore they can take time to leisurely judge them. In their case also the same rule that applies to others who cast Charts manually applies i.e., unless they are in a position to analyze the chart immediately, don't feed the data in the computer and get the print out of the Chart with other data mentioned above.. The skeleton-Chart containing only (merely) the 12 Cuspal-Points (with out Planetary Positions), however may be cast either manually or through software, & kept aside even for 24 hrs. Even the skeleton Cusp-Points-chart becomes invalid if kept for over a day or in a different location even within a day. A complete Chart with Nirayana-planetary positions&/or list of significators/ grading the significators, can be, rather should be, made ready only at the time of analysis.

4. The query may be for the Querist himself or for some relative or friend. If the query is for himself make all calculations from Lagna. If it is for younger Brother or Sister, take the 3rd house counted from the Lagna in the Horary Chart as Ascendant and work out; If it relates to Mother, take the 4th, as Ascendant.; For the Sons & Daughters of the Querist take 5th, for Wife or Partner in business take 7th, for Father take 9th, for elder-Brother or Sister, for Friend etc., take 11th, and for any unknown persons take 9th, as Ascendant, and work out..

5. After the chart is cast, the first job is to check whether the chart reflects the mind of the Querist / querent... For this check what MOON the Planet that controls the thought process and mind, a) represents by virtue of houses owned and occupied by it, b) whether its Star and Sub Lords are connected with the houses relevant to the query raised.. Also the 1stCSTL/ 1stCSBL shd be related to or connected to Moon's STL/SBL.. Experience confirms that a connection by Sub Lordship is very important too.

6. ASCENDANT also, besides Moon, reflects the Mind of the Querist, since it stands for both the Querist himself and also the query put by him. What ever matters the Ascendant Sub-Lord signifies, that is what the Querist would like to know. So ascertain which houses are signified by the Lagna-Sub-lord & what relevance they have to the question raised...The Querent is represented by planets ruling the ASC-Cusp. The Moon co-rules the Querent.. Hence the 1st house(1stCusp)Star-Lord or Sub-Lord--meaning the 1stCSTL/1stCSBL-,shd be either the same as Moon's STL or SBL, or atleast connected to Moon's STL/SBL by Conj / Asp or otherwise related to the house of query.

7. WHETHER THE MATTER IS PROMISED: The main purpose of HORARY is to get a direct answer to the query raised and therefore unless the matter is promised there is no point in proceeding further. Therefore only when the query is properly reflected by the disposition of MOON &/or ASCENDANT- SUB-LORD, the case is to be examined whether the matter is promised or not. In this connection readers should to keep in mind PUNARPOO DOSHA before coming to any conclusion on this matter. While examining a Horary Chart this will be discussed in detail, if necessary.....

8. For finding out whether the matter queried will materialize or not, consider the 11thCusp & find out whether the 11th Cusp-Sub-Lord is either RETROGRADE or deposited in either in the Constellation or Sub whose Lord is RETROGRADE. If the SubLord himself is retrograde then the event will materialize with delay. But if it is posited in Constellation or Sub of a Planet that is retrograde then the event will not materialize at all. On the other hand if all three, i.e., the Sub-Lord itself and Lord of the Constellation & Lord of the Sub in which this Sub-Lord is posited are all in direct motion and if the same 11th CuspSubLord is also a significator of either 11thBhava or atleast any one of the concerned houses relevant to the query in question, then the event is promised....FULFILMENT OF ALL THESE THREE CONDITIONS i.e., i) Sub Lord should not be retrograde, ii) Sub-Lord should not be in the Constellation/ Sub of a Planet in retrograde and iii) the Sub-Lord should signify 11th or any one of the houses relevant to the Query, IS A MUST to give an affirmative answer to the query raised; If ANYONE of THEM IS NOT FULFILLED, THEN THE matter 'falls thru' & fails....

9. Finally if the Ascendant is in any of COMMON-SIGNS (MITHUNA, KANYA, DHANUS AND MEENA), 7th house is the Bhadhakasthana.....

10. HOW TO JUDGE A CHART?? The first step in this direction is to identify correctly the houses which have a bearing on the fructification of a query, e.g., MARRIAGE -7,11,2-, BUILDING /buying a HOUSE 4,11,12 -, EMPLOYMENT 6,10,2 and 11etc., and the Significators of these houses.. The Significators are to be graded as 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th and 5th, strictly according to K.P. Method...

How this grading is done will be explained when I take up a Chart for analysis...

11. RAHU AND KETHU should be included as Significators if, only if, they are conjoined with / aspected by the Significators or tenanted in the house (Rasi) of Significators..

12. For identifying the Lordship of a house, it should be remembered that OWNER OF A HOUSE IS THE OWNER OF THE SIGN WHERE THE CUSPAL-Point FALLS.- THIS IS VERY IMPORTANT TO UNDERSTAND IN K.P..-Do NOT count or calculate the ownership of a house (Bhava), or occupation of a house (Bhava), by any planet, based either on Parasari method or by Sripathi method.- Never assume Successive Rasi Lords are successive Bhava Lords, or Planets located in successive Rasas wd always be taken as if they are in successive Bhavas...

13. SELECTION OF FRUITFUL SIGNIFICATORS: The accuracy of prediction depends entirely on the CORRECT selection of the Significators for the event. Therefore we should find out which of the Significators of the relevant houses as selected under K.P. are really beneficial and which of them are only tempters.. Many a time many Planets and even all the 9 Planets become the Significators and in such cases the beneficial Significators amongst them are to be found out after weeding out others (tempters). THIS is really a very difficult task even for a very seasoned and experienced K.P. Astrologer and all failures in prediction result only on account of wrong selection of FRUITFUL Significators. The various methods of selecting fruitful or beneficial Significators are explained below, the best method is to tally them with R.P.s. as mentioned below.....

14. The MOST reliable and easy method is to select the fruitful Significators with the help of the wonderful RULING PLANETS invented by our GREAT GURUJI JYOTISH MARTHAND, JYOTISH MANNAN, PROF: LATE SHRI K.S. KRISHNAMURTI. At this stage his GOLDEN WORDS SHOULD ALWAYS BE REMEMBERED. viz., "THE RULING PLANETS AT THE TIME OF QUERY WOULD BE THE RULING PLANETS AT THE TIME OF FRUCTIFICATION OF THE EVENT EXPECTED" Therefore, Significators which are in common with the Ruling-Planets and the FRUITFUL Significators for the event in question are to be selected under this method, if one is to get the correct result... Take R.P.s of such Time Lagna when urge comes.....

15. In order of MERIT AND STRENGTH, in the descending order, the following Planets are regarded as the RULING PLANETS.

1. ASCENDANT OR LAGNA STAR-LORD..-(Ascendant, of such time, when urge comes)
2. ASCENDANT SIGN-LORD..-(Time Ascendant)
3. MOON STAR-LORD.....
4. MOON SIGN-LORD.... &
5. DAY LORD

The above are only treated as Ruling Planets by GURUJI.. Later on many researchers have revealed that both ASCENDANT SUB-LORD & also MOON SUB-LORD too should be included as Ruling Planets.. THIS is quite in consonance with the Sub-theory of our GURUJI, KSK and several Astrologers and Great Scholars in K.P., by taking these two Sub-Lords also as Ruling Planets have given/written innumerable accurate predictions.. Therefore when we include these two Sub-Lords i.e., Ascendant's Sub-Lord and Moon's Sub-Lord, they take precedence over Ascendant Star-Lord and Moon-Star-Lord in meriting.. Apart from the above any Planet Aspected by the above selected Ruling Planets, are also in the Sign, Star or Sub of any of the Ruling Planets can be included as Ruling Planets -BOTH THE CONDITIONS BEING SATISFIED SIMULTANEOUSLY..-I (SVT) too found them to be correct... Here I would like to make the following comments with regard to RULING PLANETS, based on KSK.'s observation RULING-PLANETS ARE THE DIVINE GUIDE TO AN ASTROLOGER AND THEIR HELP SHOULD BE SOUGHT ONLY WHEN THERE IS AN URGE TO DECIDE THE SIGNIFICATORS WHO CAN BRING OUT THE EVENT QUERIED AND NOT FOR THE MOMENT AT WHICH THE WORKING OF THE HORARY CHART IS TAKEN IN HAND OR WHEN JUDGING THE CHART FOR THE EVENT AFTER THE CHART HAS BEEN WORKED OUT COMPLETELY WITH ALL SIGNIFICATORS ETC., This condition applies equally to all those Astrologers who use Computer package for preparing the Chart.

16. One should not accept these RULING-PLANETS as they are. Check whether any of them is posited either in the Constellation or Sub of a Retrograde Planet. If there is any, reject them and accept the remaining. (So the Theory of rejecting “retro-planets” applies even to Ruling Planets too...).

17. SUN AND MOON never retrograde. Similarly for RAHU AND KETU retrogression should NOT be considered. Thus only MARS, JUPITER, VENUS AND SATURN will retrograde.

18. The SECOND METHOD for selecting fruitful Significators is to take the CUSP SUB LORD of the concerned houses and see, which of the Significators are posited in their Constellation. Those Significators who are in the stars of such Cusp-Sub-Lords can be taken straightaway as fruitful one. The rest can be dropped or eliminated by further process. If there is NO planet either in the Star or in Sub of the CSBL, then take that CSBL itself, as a Significator

19. The THIRD METHOD of selecting fruitful Significators is to find out whether its Sub Lord is one of the Significators.- If yes it can be included or else dropped..

20. As a GENERAL RULE all those Significators which signify 12th to the relevant houses under scrutiny, meaning Negation house, should be rejected.. Similarly Planets which are in 6,8,12 to the concerned houses also mostly do not contribute to the matters signified by such houses. Similarly any house which are in 6, 8 and 12, to any house are considered to negate the affairs influenced by the house concerned..

21. A Planet which appears a larger number of times amongst the Significators / RULING PLANETS or who is connected with various Significators as their Constellation or Sign or as a Sub-Lord should be taken as THE STRONGEST. Conversely a Planet which is not in the Sub of Lords of the concerned houses should be treated as WEAKEST, in producing the result though may qualify itself as a significator after passing through all the elimination processes.

22. Significators, that are in the Sub of Planets occupying houses negating the Houses concerned i.e. in the 12th to the houses concerned, should be rejected as unfruitful Significators. (Means if the Sub Lord of a significator is in Negation house that significator WON'T be fruitful.)

23. RAHU AND KETU that are NODES give results as follows: i) First give results of houses owned by Planets with which they are conjoined, ii) Second as Planets Aspecting them, iii) Third as Planets in whose sign they are tenanted, iv) Fourth as Planets in whose star they are tenanted.

NOTE: 1. Many prefer to take the Node as representing the Planet in whose Sign they are tenanted, under the third step indicated above. 2. Nodes do not Aspect any Planet or any house since they are only the sensitive and powerful intersecting points in the pathway of Sun and Moon and they are not having any physical body which can be seen through a telescope as we can see all the other Planets. THIS is the reason why they are called SHADOWY PLANETS & KP insists Nodes have NO aspect, but are only receptive to Conjn / Aspct from the 7 Tara planets.

24. When the Nodes appear as RULING PLANTS/SIGNIFICATORS its Sign Lord is replaced by it AND IN CASE THE SIGN LORD ITSELF DOES NOT QUALIFY TO BECOME SIGNIFICATORS THEN THE NODES HAVE ALSO TO BE DROPPED AS SIGNIFICATORS. I WOULD LIKE

READERS TO UNDERSTAND THIS VERY CLEARLY. In case the Sign Lord is also a powerful significator there is no need to replace it, but it can be taken along with the Node.

25. It should be remembered that the RULING PLANTS have a definite bearing over the EVENT. If the SIGN LORD AND STAR LORD OF SUN ARE ALSO COMMON AMONGST THE ALREADY SELECTED FRUITFUL SIGNIFICATORS AND THE RULING PLANETS, then Sun's Star and Sign Lords become STRONGEST to offer result according to their disposition..

26. TIMING OF EVENT: THIS is the greatest hurdle- Therefore the technique for this can be mastered only by experience over a long period of time. However a few useful tips are given below....

27. An event will materialize during the conjoined period of the selected Significators especially when the Luminaries (SUN AND MOON, especially when MOON transit through their ZONES (Sign, Star & Sub of Significators) indicated by these Planets..

28. When the event is expected in:

a) Few hours from the time of judgment of the Horary Chart, move the Ascendant i.e., Lagna-point to the sensitive Zone of the Significators. (Sensitive Zone means Sign, Star & Sub of R.Ps)

b) In a few days time move Moon to the sensitive zone of the Significators.

c) In a few months time, move Sun to the sensitive ZONES of the Significators..

d) If after a year or more then move JUPITER to the sensitive ZONE of the Significators.

In case the event is likely to happen within hours from the time of judgment of the Horary-Chart, find the Lagna i.e., Ascendant that is rising at the time of judgment. Then which is next to rise and so on. Then that wing of ZONE that is governed by one of the selected Significators should have the Star governed by another strong significator. In that one has to find out when the third significator becomes the Sub-Lord. When this position in that Sign would rise in the East or transited by Moon or Sun, as the case may be, the event will materialize..

29. But in case the event is expected to materialize in Days, Months or after a Year, then that date and time should be taken when the Moon, Sun or Jupiter, as the case may be, transits in that Sign, Star and Sub..

30. IN HORARY CHARTS, Planets in retrograde motion can't give results as long as they are retrograde.. However, if a retrograde Planet is deposited in the Constellation & also Sub of a Planet that is in direct motion, then this indicates that the matter will materialize with some delay and obstacles. The matter will materialize when the Planet assumes direct motion and passes beyond the longitude wherefrom retrograde motion started...If STL or SBL of relevant CSBL is retro, then the matter will fail..

34. If Planets 'A' and 'B' in their periods give a result, then the Planet in 6 or 8 or 12 to 'A' and 'B' will give the diametrically opposite results. For example if one joins service during 'A' Dasa, 'B' Bukthi, then he will lose the job or leave it during 'C' Bukthi, if 'C' is in 6, 8 or 12 to both 'A' and 'B' and forms evil aspect with 'A' and 'B', as per KP.. The Dasa, Bukthi and Anthra mentioned here are the one running in the Horary Chart under examination..

35. Whenever one wants to find out the day of an event in any Bukthi and Anthra, one is to note whether the Lord of the Bukthi and Anthra are strong or the Lord of the Constellation. The Lord of the Constellation, if stronger, will give the result only on its day.

36. For finding out a particular date, the transit of the selected fruitful Significators should also be scrutinized. They should be transiting in the Constellation and Sub of the Significators..

37. If the XI Cusp-Sub Lord happens to be one of the strong Significators, then an event wd often materialize in its Sub-period...

38. If 11th house is occupied by fast moving Planets such as Moon, Mercury, Sun, Mars, Venus or, if Lord of 11, (if 11th is vacant) are the above Planets then the event queried will materialize within a short period. If on the other hand either the occupant of 11th or Lord of 11th, is a slow moving Planet such as Saturn, Rahu and Kethu, or even Jupiter, then the event will not materialize in short time but will take a long time. (However in practice I have seen that this rule is not always correct. Re Moon alone, this rule is correct, as per my (SVT) experience).....

Only faster moving planets can apply in aspect.. This dictum however is found to be correct.....

39. GENERAL In case the Sub-Lord of the Horary Number happens to rule the Constellation/ Sign/Sub in which Moon is posited at the time of query the answer will be mostly affirmative to the question. In addition If Moon is making no aspects to any planets before it goes into a new sign, then matter proceeds with great difficulty. If one or both of co-rulers apply in benefic Aspect (Conjunction, Trine, Sextile etc) to the planet ruling the appropriate house for the question, then there is positive outcome to the question... If the planet ruling the house of the question is in the first house (representing the querent), then there is a positive answer... If the planet ruling the ASC is in the house of the question, then there is a positive answer.

40. It is often useful to scrutinize what the RULING PLANETS signify, their aspects with the Cusp/Cusp Lords and other Planets. How far they promise good result for some Bhava or affect the result of other Bhavas.

41. THE NATURE OF PLANETS- (Graha-Tatva) SHOULD INVARIABLY BE KEPT IN VIEW, For example. Sun stands for Govt. / Court, Ketu / Mars for quick grasping, Ketu for aberration, Jupiter for law, judgment & Bank;. Moon for Liquids, Mars / Mercury for Engineering and Saturn for mining & metal... Pay attention to Graha-tatvas of both CSBLs & their STLs...

42. A Planet in whose star there is no other Planet is the strongest to give the result of the house of whose significator it is. THIS APPLIES VERY STRONGLY TO CUSP SUB- LORDS.. (say for eg: for Malu 5th CSBL is Mercury located in 5th & No planet in Mercury Star /.. So it Very strongly signifies 5th. besides Venus which alone is in Mercury Sub.. Again in Swami Vivekanda, Jupiter in 9th with NO planet in Jupitir's Star/Sub. So Jupiter in his Chart strongest to signify 12,3,9 & Lagna)

43. The above are only general guidelines. In practice I have found, though rarely, that Planets behave very peculiarly- they give result even when in retrograde, or at times even in the Constellation or Sub of retrograde-Planets. This appears to be in contradiction to KP Horary principle! Only if we have some in-sight knowledge about the Astronomical aspect of Astrology we can understand more fully such phenomena.

44. ASTROLOGY is a continuing/evolving science. THIS is perhaps the reason why GURUJI himself has invited Scholars of Astrology to study 'HIS System' well and after more thorough research, further advance HIS System. Thus the K.P. System is NOT A STATIC ONE where the FINAL CHAPTER has been written.. It is left to the K.P.Scholars & Astrologers 'to dive further deep into this K.P. SYSTEM' of course, WITHOUT LOSING GRIP ON THE FUNDAMENTALS OF SUB-LORDS AND RULING PLANET THEORIES...When it is said SUB-LORD, it refers to & means ALL four Sub-Lords, viz, CSBLs, SBL of CSBLs, SBLs of Directional Lords (Dasa / Bhukti / Antra-Lords) & Subs in which Directional-Lords & Moon transit at the moment of 'fructification'..

45. Apart from what I have given above as guidelines there are a few more hurdles that are to be crossed before one can come into grips of handling a Horary Chart. These can be understood only by handling a Horary Chart, examine it thoroughly, give the prediction and find out whether the prediction given has come true atleast upto the date, if not check where a mistake has been committed or which principles have not been followed resulting in the wrong prediction, gain experience and finally apply this GREAT THEORY.. Lot of learning of both theory & application is required. I am still learning too...

The main house Cuspal Sub-Lord should be related to the other 2 or 3 related houses or CSBLs of other related houses, or often to 11th house.

First house is house of overall well being. 8th/3rd houses are the houses of longevity. If these houses, especially 3rd, &/or Lagna, are connected mainly with badhaka (obstructing& death)-house,&/or also the house of departure(Moksha)-houses, or atleast one of the two Maraka (death giving) death is indicated. Sixth house is the house of wound, injury and diseases.. Dur Marana or bad death if 8th (Randhra) is connected to Bhadr/Moksh etc..

Apart from these few Horary Principles almost all other KP principles applied in Natal-chart analyzis, include relevant CSBLs, & STL/SBL of CSBLs, Rules of significations, STL/SBL of Dasa Bhukti Antra Lords, 3-D/4-D effects, are all V.SAME in Horary-analyzis too.. Compiled by SVT .. - 1-5-2015.

The purchaser is represented by the 7th cusp of the chart and his acquisition of property is denoted by the 4th from 7th i.e. 10th. Whether any party would purchase the Querent's property (i.e. Whether the querent will be able to sell the property) is therefore to be judged from 10th cusp of the native's chart. The Querent's property is denoted by the 4th cusp and his parting with it by the 3rd house (which is 12 from 4). Thus some party would purchase only if the sub lord of the 10th cusp is a significator of 3rd and 10th. It is imperative that whenever judgment for horse racing, cards etc is to be made one is to take only the planets that have connection with the 5th house, but never take the planets or significators (specially the sub portion) which signify the 5th house matter as 5th is the 11th for 7th house i.e. Gain to opponent, meaning loss to native.. Only when significator of 5th, signifies Bhavas 11, 6, 2 more strongly (especially thru' Sub level) than signifying 5th, there will be PROFIT/Success.. Similarly for Lottery success, significators of 3&8, should signify 11, 2, 6 much more strongly than signifying 3&8.- Much more stronger signification as per KP rules of signification, means thru' Star or Sub level than the occupant/Lord of planet. If it is a Node it also relates to its Conjunction/SGL...Also only planets like Jupiter Moon Venus should be in 2nd house.

R.P.s....

Simply put Ruling planets are the planets which rule over the particular moment of judgment (in the case of horary/Prasna), birth (in the case of natal chart), or whatever the issue maybe. They are the strongest determinants of the moment. According to Krishnamurti they are:

Lagna star lord; Lagna lord; Moon star lord; Moon sign lord; and Weekday lord;

Later his students/researchers also added the Lagna Sublord and Moon Sublord. -In practice the ascendant Sublord works very well. I use the Moon sublord as a contender only if it is already among the first six ruling planets, only to eliminate the weaker ones, if too many planets appear in the list of ruling planets. If Rahu or Ketu occupy a sign whose lord (ruler) owns another sign, and only if that planet happens to be a ruling planet, the node should also be taken as a ruling planet.

After drawing a list of the ruling planets we can eliminate some as follows.

Planets deposited in the nakshatra or Sub of a retrograde planet have to be rejected. But planets which are retrograde pose no problem, ONLY those IN THE CONSTELLATION of a retrograde planet will be rejected....

Two points are to be remembered.

1. The fructification of the event will occur only when the transiting planet (transits of Dasa-Bhukti-Antra Lords & transit Moon too) transit such points in the zodiac ruled by these planets. If the result is expected on the same day, the transit-Lagna will transit this point. If it is in days, move the Moon to this point, if it is expected to happen in months, move Sun, and finally if it is expected in years, Jupiter will transit a point in the zodiac whose sign lord, nakshatra lord and sublord are ruled by the ruling planets.

2. Even if you have three strongest ruling planets, you have 3 points in the zodiac ruled by the three planets. If the ascendant at judgment is a movable sign, the earliest one may be preferred. If it is fixed, the last point.
